To ensure accurate processing of the components of NETStudy 2.0 that rely on name and date of birth for matching, it is important that you verify the identity of the subject of the background study.

Name and date of birth background study: You are not required to view a physical ID card or a photocopy of it, you can verify identity using a household roster or another source.

For fingerprint-based studies: You are not required to view a physical ID card or a photocopy of it, you can verify identity using a household roster or another source. This person must bring a photo ID to the fingerprint location. If the study subject’s name and date of birth on the identification card they bring to the fingerprint location does not exactly match the name and date of birth entered on this form and in NETStudy 2.0, the fingerprint technician will not process the fingerprint transaction. If this happens, the study will need to be re-initiated with the correct information and the subject will need to go to the fingerprinting location again. A list of acceptable forms of ID may be found on the DHS public website (https://mn.gov/dhs/assets/acceptable-forms-id_tcm1053-336020.pdf)

Identification of the subject has been verified.
